

History and Arts Public Lecture

Tuesday 6th may 2008.

Mr Mark Cracknell - Flowing melody
and cascading arpeggios:
interpretations of water in piano music.

Director of Music Mark Cracknell BA continues Taunton School's outstanding History and Arts Public Lecture series with his lecture recital. This lecture will include performances of music by several composers, including Debussy and Ravel.

Please note it will take place in the Chapel not the Old Library. Doors open, with drinks, at 6:30pm. For any additional information please contact Taunton School on 01823 349200 or alternatively email enquiries@tauntonschool.co.uk.

