Sixth Form Uniform (Years 12, 13)

- Members of the sixth form are required to wear formal tailored clothes appropriate for the work place.
- Suits may be plain, discreetly pin-striped, discreetly textured or discreetly patterned.
- Different coloured jackets and trouser are permitted (eg chinos) as long as they are smart and business like (bright colours are not permitted).
- All students must wear a jacket during the formal part of the academic day.

Trouser Uniform

- A collared shirt and tie must be worn. The shirt may be subtly striped or patterned but must not be ostentatious. A jumper may be worn as long as it is of a single colour and made of a lightweight knit and it should not have a logo. Shoes must be made of leather and smart in appearance. A smart, dark coat may be worn when appropriate.
- Jewellery: no piercings. Other jewellery should be discrete and in keeping with the formality of the school day.
- Hair: Natural colour, neat and tidy and not ostentatious. Faces should be clean shaven.

Skirt Uniform

- A dress, trouser or skirt suit is permitted – it must not be tight-fitting. The skirt must extend towards the knee (short skirts are not acceptable) with only small splits. A smart collar or collarless shirt is acceptable provided the arms are covered. A smart jumper of a lightweight knit may be worn (including turtle neck Jumpers), no logos. Over tight ('bodycon'), over large, untidy or revealing clothing is inappropriate and unacceptable. Shoes/boots should be leather and suitable for the work place with extremes of fashion (stilettos, flip flops, over knee boots etc.) not allowed. A smart, dark coat may be worn when appropriate
- Jewellery: needs to be discrete and in keeping with the formality of the school day.
- Hair styles: Natural colour, neat and tidy and not ostentatious.
- Make up: if worn it should be natural and understated in appearance.

Above all a smart appearance is vital and any clothing that is deemed unsuitable by House Staff is unacceptable: if pupils are unsure they should ask before purchasing clothes.
